

Haverford Township Historical Society

J. BORTON WEEKS (1891-1940)

Compiled by Richard D. Kerr

[The following is excerpted from Who's Who of Delaware County 1926, John T. Donahue, editor, published by Press of Chester Times in 1926.]

J. BORTON WEEKS, Attorney-at-Law, and member of the firm Taylor, Chadwick and Weeks, Chester, Pa. Mr. Weeks resides at Brookline, Haverford Township. His clubs are the Chester, Springhaven, Brinton Lake, Penn Athletic, Keystone Automobile, Pen and Pencil, Brookline Square, Craftsman's, Ben Franklin and Kiwanis. His fraternities are the Delta Chi (U. of P.), Geo. W. Bartram Lodge, F: & A. M., Media Royal Arch Chapter 24, and a member of the American Legion. His societies are the Delaware County Historical, American Bar Association, Penna. Bar Association, Delaware County Bar Association. He was born February 3rd, 1891, his father being Joseph H. Weeks, and his mother Bessie Borton Weeks. He is President of the Keystone Automobile Club, Vice-President of the National Motorists' Association, and Vice-President of the Motorists' Association of Penna. In politics, a Republican. He served during the war as a member of the Field Artillery. He is a Presbyterian. His principal sport is tennis. Mr. Weeks is a bachelor.

©2016 Haverford Township Historical Society. Personal non-commercial use permitted; all other rights reserved.